

List three of the features of the new choir at St. Denis as described by Abbot Suger that are characteristic of the new Gothic style.

- a.
- b.
- c.

List the three structural and/or design features that characterize a Gothic vault.

- a.
- b.
- c.

What are the advantages of the pointed arch over the round arch?

Define or identify the following terms:

Abbot Suger
Saint Thomas Aquinas
Scholasticism
Vincent of Beauvais

The new spirit of the Gothic period that replaced the severity of Romanesque themes of judgment and damnation could be symbolized by the dedication of cathedrals to _____. Her iconography can be seen in the Royal Portals of Chartres Cathedral, the earliest and most complete surviving Early Gothic sculptural complex.

The following scenes are represented on the tympana:

Right:

Left:

Central:

In what ways do these jamb figures differ significantly from Romanesque figures?

- a.
- b.
- c.

List three Romanesque features retained in Laon Cathedral.

- a.
- b.
- c.

List three new Gothic features found in the cathedral.

- a.
- b.
- c.

Describe or draw the new bay structure of Chartres that was to become the norm for High Gothic buildings:

What spatial effect did this create?

How do the figures of St. Martin, St. Jerome, and St. Gregory from the Porch of the Confessors (FIG. 18-17) and the jamb figures from the Royal Portals of Chartres Cathedral (FIG. 18-7) illustrate the development of Gothic sculpture?

What are the similarities in the facades of Chartres (FIG. 18-5) and Amiens (FIG. 18-21)?

What are the differences?

What major change do you see in the façade of Reims (FIG. 18-23).

Describe the pose of the Virgin of Paris (FIG. 18-26) that was typical of much later Gothic sculpture.

From what did the Late Gothic Flamboyant style derive its name?

Give an example of the style:

Define the following

crenellations keep ramparts

What features of the graceful image of the Virgin seen in FIG. 18-37 link her to the French court?

What features of Salisbury Cathedral distinguish it from French Gothic?

The last English Gothic style, seen at Gloucester, is called _____.

It is characterized by the following features:

a.

b.

Define or identify the following terms:

fan vaulting
ogee arch

The German cathedral of _____ was finished in the nineteenth century when the original thirteenth century plan was discovered. In what way was its Gothic construction significant for its survival of the severe bombings of World War II?

Who were Ekkehard and Uta and what is significant about their appearance in a cathedral?

